1

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Article 17 of the Constitution of India abolished the practice of untouchability. The Article reads as follows: -

"17. Abolition of Untouchability

“Untouchability” is abolished and its practice in any form is forbidden. The enforcement of any disability arising out of “Untouchability” shall be an offence punishable in accordance with law."

1.2 In pursuance of the above Constitutional provision, the Untouchability (Offences) Act, 1955 (22 of 1955), was enacted and notified on 08.05.1955. Subsequently, it was amended and renamed in the year 1976 as the "Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955". Rules under this Act, viz, “The Protection of Civil Rights Rules, 1977” were notified in 1977. The Act extends to the whole of India and provides punishment for the practice of untouchability. It is implemented by the respective State Governments and Union Territory Administrations.

1.3 Main provisions of the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955, are as under:-

(1) Sections 3 - 7A of the Act define the following as offences if committed on the ground of “untouchability”, and lay down punishment for them:

(i) Prevention from entering public worship places, using sacred water resources (Section 3).
(ii) Denial of access to any shop, public restaurant, hotel, public entertainment, cremation ground etc. (Section 4).
(iii) Refusal of admission to any hospital, dispensary, educational institutions etc. (Section 5).
(iv) Refusal to sell goods and render services (Section 6).
(v) Molestation, causing injury, insult etc. (Section 7).
(vi) Compelling a person on the ground of untouchability to do any scavenging or sweeping or to remove any carcass etc. (Section 7 A).
(2) Sections 8-11 of the Act contain certain preventive/deterrent previsions, which are as follows:-

(i) Cancellation or suspension of licences on conviction (Section 8).
(ii) Resumption or suspension of grants made by Government (Section 9).
(iii) Punishment for wilful neglect of investigation by a public servant (Section 10).
(iv) Power of State Government to impose collective fine. (Section 10A).
(v) Enhanced penalty on subsequent conviction (Section 11)

3. Other provisions:-

(i) Presumption by courts in certain cases (Section 12).
(ii) Offences to be cognizable and to be tried summarily. (Section 15).
(iii) State Governments to take measures for effective implementation of the Act, including:

- legal aid,
- setting up Special Courts,
- setting up of Committees at appropriate levels to assist the State Governments, and
- identification of untouchability-prone areas and measures for eliminating the practice in such areas (Section 15 A).

1.4 RESPONSIBILITY FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE ACT

Responsibility for implementation of the Act primarily lies with State Governments and their subordinate authorities (police and executive magistrate). At the Central level, (as per the Government of India (Allocation of Business) Rules, 1961) responsibility in regard to implementation of the Act is allocated as under: -

Ministry of Home Affairs

Criminal offences against members of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, including those under the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955.

Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment

Implementation of the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955, (in so far as it relates to Scheduled Castes) excluding the administration of criminal justice in regard to offences under the Act.
Ministry of Tribal Affairs

Implementation of the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955, (in so far as it relates to Scheduled Tribes) excluding the administration of criminal justice in regard to offences under the Act.

1.5 REPORT ON THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PROTECTION OF CIVIL RIGHTS ACT, 1955

Section 15 A of the Act casts certain duties on Central and State Governments to ensure effective implementation of the Act, and reads as follows:-

"15A Duty of Government to ensure effective implementation of the Act"

(1) Subject to such rules as the Central Government may make in this behalf, the State Government shall take such measures as may be necessary for ensuring that the rights arising from the abolition of “untouchability” are made available to, and are availed of by, the persons subjected to any disability arising out of “untouchability”.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1), such measures may include -

(i) the provision of adequate facilities, including legal aid, to the persons subjected to any disability arising out of “untouchability” to enable them to avail themselves of such rights;

(ii) the appointment of officers for initiating or exercising supervision over prosecution for the contravention of the provisions of this Act;

(iii) the setting up of special courts for the trial of offences under this Act;

(iv) the setting up of Committees at such appropriate levels as the State Government may think fit to assist the State Government in formulating or implementing such measures;

(v) provision for a periodic survey of the working of the provisions of this Act with a view to suggesting measures for the better implementation of the provisions of this Act.

(vi) the identification of the areas where persons are under any disability arising out of “untouchability” and adoption of such measures as would ensure the removal of such disability from such areas.

(3) The Central Government shall take such steps as may be necessary to co-ordinate the measures taken by the State Governments under sub-section (1)
(4) The Central Government shall, every year, place on the Table of each House of Parliament, a report on the measures taken by itself and by the State Governments in pursuance of the provisions of this Section.

This Report for the calendar year 2008 is being placed on the Table of both Houses of Parliament in pursuance of sub-section (4) of the above Section 15A.

2.1 Legal Aid

Section 15A(2)(i) of the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955, provides for adequate facilities, including legal aid to the persons subjected to any disability arising out of 'untouchability' to enable them to avail themselves of such rights.

State Governments of Assam, Chhattisgarh, Goa, Gujarat, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Orissa, Punjab, Uttar Pradesh, West Bengal and UT Administrations of Chandigarh, Daman & Diu, and Puducherry have reported that they are providing legal aid.

2.2 Special Courts

Section 15A(2)(iii) of the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955, provides for setting up of special courts for trial of offences under the Act.

In Andhra Pradesh, 22 Mobile Courts are functioning in 22 districts, to conduct trial of offences under the Act. In Tamil Nadu, four Special Courts at Madurai, Thanjavur, Tirunelveli and Tiruchirapally, take up trial of cases under the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955. Besides this, fourteen designated courts also try offences under the Act. In Tripura, the first class Judicial Magistrates have been empowered to hold special courts for the trial of offences under the Act. In Uttar Pradesh, in each district, the Court of Chief Judicial Magistrate / Judicial Magistrate has been designated as a Special Court for trial of offences under the Act. Government of Kerala has specified District Courts as Special Courts to try the offences under the Act. Chandigarh Administration has specified the Court of Additional Session Judge as a Special Court to try the offences under the Act in Chandigarh. Government of Puducherry has designated the Court of Chief Judicial Magistrate as a Special Court for the whole of Puducherry to try offences under the Act. The Judicial Magistrates of the two Regions of the Union Territory, namely Karaikal and Yanam also try the offences under the Act.
2.3 Committees at appropriate levels

Section 15A(2)(ii) of the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955, provides for setting up of Committees at such appropriate levels as the State Governments may think fit to assist them in formulating or implementing measures as may be necessary for ensuring that the rights arising from the abolition of “untouchability” are made available to, and are availed of by, the persons subjected to any disability arising out of "untouchability". The State and District Level Vigilance and Monitoring Committees, which review the implementation of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, wherever required also review action under the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955.

Governments of Andhra Pradesh, Assam, Bihar, Chhattisgarh, Goa, Gujarat, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh, Jharkhand, Karnataka, Kerala, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Nagaland, Orissa, Punjab, Rajasthan, Tamil Nadu, Uttar Pradesh, Uttarakhand and UT Administrations of Dadra & Nagar Haveli, Andaman & Nicobar Islands, Daman & Diu have reported having constituted these Committees.

2.4 Special Police Stations

Special Police Stations for registration of complaints of offences against SCs and STs have been set by the Governments of Bihar, Chhattisgarh and Madhya Pradesh. The details are as under:-

2.5 Incentive for inter-caste marriages

Under the Centrally Sponsored Scheme for implementation of the PCR and PoA Acts, central assistance to State Governments and Union Territory Administrations is provided towards incentive for inter-caste marriages where one of the spouses belongs to a Scheduled Caste. The incentive amount varies between Rs. 5,000/- in West Bengal to Rs. 100,000/- in Goa. States/UTs of Andhra Pradesh, Assam, Chhattisgarh, Goa, Gujarat, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh, Karnataka, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Orissa, Punjab, Rajasthan, Sikkim, Uttarakhand, Uttar Pradesh, West Bengal, Chandigarh, Delhi and Puducherry have reported that they are providing incentive for inter-caste marriages. States/Union Territories wise details of incentive amount provided to inter-caste marriage couples are at Annexure-I.

2.6 Constitutional bodies to monitor safeguards provided for SCs and STs

A. National Commission for Scheduled Castes (NCSC)

The NCSC is a body established under Article 338 of the Constitution. Following provisions of clause(5) of Article 338 lay down certain duties of the Commission, which have a bearing on prevention of atrocities against SCs:-

"(a) to investigate and monitor all matters relating to the safeguards provided for the Scheduled Castes under this Constitution or under any other law for the time being in force or under any order of the Government and to evaluate the working of such safeguards;

(b) to inquire into specific complaints with respect to the deprivation of rights and safeguards of the Scheduled Castes."

The NCSC has an Atrocities and Protection of Civil Rights Wing, which deals with cases relating to Scheduled Castes under the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 and the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955, either on receipt of complaints from individuals or information from other sources (including the media). Evaluation studies/surveys on these subjects are also conducted by this Wing.

The Commission has Regional Offices/Sub-Offices situated at Agartala, Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Chandigarh, Chennai, Guwahati, Hyderabad, Kolkata, Lucknow, Patna, Pune and Thiruvananthapuram, with specified jurisdiction to cover States/Union Territories. These offices work as the "eyes and ears" of the Commission.
B. National Commission for Scheduled Tribes (NCST)

The NCST is a body established under Article 338-A of the Constitution. Following provisions of clause(5) of Article 338-A lay down certain duties of the Commission:

"(a) to investigate and monitor all matters relating to the safeguards provided for the Scheduled Tribes under this Constitution or under any other law for the time being in force or under any order of the Government and to evaluate the working of such safeguards;

(b) to inquire into specific complaints with respect to the deprivation of rights and safeguards of the Scheduled Tribes."

The Commission has six Regional offices at Bhopal, Bhubaneswar, Jaipur, Raipur, Ranchi, and Shillong with specified jurisdiction to cover States/Union Territories.

CHAPTER 4

MEASURES TAKEN BY THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

4.1. MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE & EMPOWERMENT

The Act is implemented by the respective State Governments and Union Territory Administrations. With a view to ensure its effective implementation by them, central assistance is provided to them under the Centrally Sponsored Scheme for implementation of the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955 and the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, for following purposes:-

(i) Functioning and strengthening of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes Protection Cell and Special Police Stations.
(ii) Setting up and functioning of exclusive Special Courts.
(iii) Relief and Rehabilitation to atrocity victims.
(iv) Cash incentive for Inter-Caste Marriages.
(v) Awareness generation.

The funding pattern of the Scheme is as such that over and above the committed liability of respective State Governments, the expenditure is shared between Centre and States on 50:50 basis and UT Administrations receive 100% central assistance. A total of Rs. 43.1 crore was given to 19 States and 4 UTs during 2008-09, State/UT wise details of which are given at Annexure-IV.
The BE, RE and Expenditure under the Scheme during 2008-2009 were as under:-

LEGAL AID

Article 39A of the Constitution of India provides for free legal aid to the poor and weaker sections of the Society and ensures justice for all. Articles 14 and 22 (10) of the Constitution also makes it obligatory for the State to ensure equality before law and a legal system which promotes justice on the basis of equal opportunity to all. In 1987, the Legal Services Authority Act was enacted by the Parliament, which came into force on 9th November, 1995 with an object to establish a nationwide uniform network for providing free and competent legal services to the weaker sections of the Society on the basis of equal opportunity. Members of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes are entitled to get Free Legal Services under Section 12 of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987.

Free Legal Services under the above Act include:

(1) Rendering of any service in the conduct of any case or other legal proceedings before any court/authority/tribunal and giving advice on any legal matter;

(2) Providing Advocates in legal proceedings;

(3) Obtaining and supply of certified copies of orders and other documents in legal proceedings;

(4) Preparation of appeal, paperbook including printing and translation of documents in legal proceedings.

31,605 persons belonging to Scheduled Castes and 21,136 persons to Scheduled Tribes were benefited through Legal Aid and Advice in the year 2008 under the provisions of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987.
4.3. MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING

The offences of atrocities against Scheduled Castes tend to be an extreme manifestation of caste based hatred and untouchability. The Ministry of Information & Broadcasting through its units has been propagating the objective of removal of untouchability and caste based prejudices in the society. The work done by various Units of the Ministry is indicated as under: -

4.3.1 ALL INDIA RADIO (AIR)

All India Radio (AIR) Stations have been giving regular publicity to programme on issues concerning ‘Eradication of Untouchability’.

4.3.2 SONG & DRAMA DIVISION

The Song & Drama Division has been utilizing folk and traditional forms to educate people on issues of national importance amongst people in different remote places including minority concentrated and backward areas. The efforts were also made to raise awareness about removal of Untouchability, especially targeting rural and semi-urban populace. The programmes are composite in nature wherein the themes of inter-caste marriage, communal harmony are woven into almost all programmes being presented by the Division.

State Level Vigilance and Monitoring Committee

State level Vigilance and Monitoring Committee under the Chairpersonship of Chief Minister has been reconstituted.

5.27.2 State level SC/ST Protection Cell

A PCR Cell is functioning directly under the control of Superintendent of Police in three enclaves of the Union Territory of Puducherry namely Puducherry, Karaikal and Yanam. The Cell is registering cases under the Act. In addition to the investigation and prosecution of criminal cases under the Act, the Officers of the Cell also make enquiries on complaints and undertake other activities such as collection of intelligence about the atrocities, ill treatment and practice of untouchability both in Urban and Rural areas. They also visit rural and urban areas.

5.27.3 Publicity & Awareness Generation

Workshops, seminars are conducted for the newly recruited Deputy Tahslidars and Social Welfare Inspectors of Adi-Dravidar Welfare Department as well as for promoted Head Constables and newly recruited police constables at Police Training School, Puducherry.

5.27.4 Special Courts

The Court of Chief Judicial Magistrate has been designated as a Special Court for the whole of Puducherry to try offences under the Act. The Judicial Magistrates of the two Regions of the Union Territory, namely Karaikal and Yanam also try offences under the Act.

5.27.5 Legal Aid

Legal Aid is provided to those who have been subjected to disability arising out of untouchability. Suitable legal assistance is also provided by the Special Public Prosecutor in Puducherry Region and by Assistant Public Prosecutors in Karaikal and Yanam Regions.
5.28 OTHER STATES & UNION TERRITORIES

(i) In the States of Meghalaya and Mizoram, Scheduled Caste population is negligible.

(ii) No community has been specified as Scheduled Caste in the States of Arunachal Pradesh and Nagaland, and in the Union Territories of Andaman & Nicobar Islands and Lakshadweep.

(iii) Information for incorporation in this Report has not been received from the State Governments of Jammu & Kashmir and Manipur, despite several reminders.

Further, in all these States/UTs, no case was reportedly registered under the Act, during 2008.
